

Staff Profile

Elin Holm Rasmussen University College, South Denmark.

Elin Holm Rasmussen is a Senior Lecturer at the Teacher Training Education UC South Denmark, where she has been employed for 17 years and mainly taught in the areas of pedagogy and didactics. Her main subject is didactic but she is also involved in research about children and cross professional work.

Elin is first trained as a primary school teacher, but for many years she has also taught in Danish as a Second Language for refugees and immigrants.

She has a Master's Degree in Foreign Language Teaching and a Senior Master's Degree in Education Pedagogy.

Currently she works with research, and she is involved in a project dealing with vulnerable children and cooperation between educators, social workers and teachers.

